FLOOR DEBATE

April 7, 2004 LB 1091

have talked about not leaving them with a mess. So what do you all do? You put into the constitution something that's going to cripple them when it comes to being able to use funds. I can't read what Senator...I still don't know what he said. And I'm not going to do like Senator Dwite Pedersen and speculate about what he said (laugh) and get something altogether different from what he's trying to get across. But keep in mind what it is we're dealing with. This bill should be passed. I'm going to pull my motion. And I want to thank Senator McDonald for giving me the opportunity to say these few words. And if somebody makes a motion on another bill on Final Reading, I will have a bit more to say. Mr. Speaker, I will withdraw that motion.

SPEAKER BROMM: It is withdrawn, Senator Chambers. We'll return to the reading of...Mr. Clerk, is there anything else further on the bill?

CLERK: Nothing further on the bill, Mr. President.

SPEAKER BROMM: We return to the reading of LB 1091E. And the first motion for the body to consider is whether we dispense with Final Reading. All in favor of dispensing with Final Reading please vote aye, and opposed nay. Please record.

CLERK: 39 ayes, 2 nays, Mr. President, to dispense with the at-large reading.

SPEAKER BROMM: The at-large reading is dispensed with. Mr. Clerk, please proceed to read LB 1091E by title.

CLERK: (Read title of LB 1091.)

SPEAKER BROMM: All provisions of law relative to procedure having been complied with, the question is, shall LB 1091E pass with the emergency clause attached? All in favor vote aye, and opposed nay. Please record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: (Record vote read, Legislative Journal pages 1540-1541.) 48 ayes, 0 nays, 1 excused and not voting, Mr. President.

SPEAKER BROMM: LB 1091E does pass with the emergency
